DUMA IGNORES CZAR AND RULES THE RUSSIANS

Startling Announcement Comes From Berlin That Russian Revolution Has Been Successful and Duma Establishes Provisional Government Supported By Army and Large Portion of People.

CLAIM QUIET IS BEING RESTORED AFTER THREE DAYS OF GREAT DISORDER

Berlin, March 15.—(Wireless via Sayville).—There has been a successful revolution in Russia, according to the Overseas News Agency, the official German news bureau. The following statement was given out today by the news agency.

"The following official report was issued in Petrograd on March 14 about the successful Russian revolution:

"The population of Petrograd, incensed by the complete disorganization of transport services, had been irritated for a long time against the Government and had become restless.

"The population held the Government responsible for all its sufferings. The Government, expecting trouble, took measures on a large scale in order to maintain order, and among other things ordered the dissolution of the Council of the Empire and the Duma.

"The Duma, however, on March 11, decided not to accept the Imperial throne, but to continue its meetings.

"The Duma immediately instituted an executive committee, presided over by M. Rodzianko, president of the Duma.

"That committee declared itself to be a provisional government, and issued an appeal which follows in part:

"Considering the difficulties in regard to domestic tranquility, the Executive Committee of the Duma feels compelled to take public order in its own hands.

"Fully conscious of the responsibility arising from this decision, the committee expresses the certainty that the population and the army will lend their assistance for the difficult task of creating a new government which will accept the wishes of the people and enjoy their confidence."

"Today, on the third day of the revolution, the capital, where order is returning swiftly, is completely in the hands of the Executive Committee of the Duma, and of the troops which garrisoned Petrograd and numbered more than 30,000, which troops support the revolution.

"Yesterday evening the committee issued proclamations to the population, to the troops, railroads, the banks asking them to resume their usual activities.

"Deputy Gronski was chosen by the Duma committee for provisional management of the Petrograd telegraphic agency."

Stockholm, Sweden, Wednesday, March 14, via Berlin and Wireless to Tuckerton, N. J., March 15.—Reports of serious disturbances in Russia are published in Swedish newspapers.

The Tidningen, of Sundsvall, publishes a statement that a railroad bridge over the Neva river in Petrograd has been dynamited by the revolutionists.

London, March 15.—Reports from Petrograd state that the Duma, backed by the army, has succeeded in overthrowing the government completely.

The revolution centered in Petrograd and Moscow. Prominent reactionaries, including former Premier Skerster and M. Protopoff, Minister of the Interior, have been imprisoned. The government is now in the hands of a committee of safety.

American Liners Strengthened For Possible Future Naval Use

Even before the government decided to arm American vessels and notified foreign governments to that effect, work was done on the American Line vessels to fit them for possible future naval use. In the Spanish-American war the government took over the American Line ships and converted them into cruisers. It is expected that these vessels, which are speedy, although not nearly so fast as some of the newer ships of the German and British lines, will be very useful in case of a clash with Germany. Work on the Philadelphia, to strengthen her superstructure, is shown in the picture.

20,000 MEN TO WALK OUT IN CLEVELAND

Complete Tie-up of Building Work Is Expected Late This Afternoon.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Cleveland, O., March 15.—A complete tie-up of building work in Cleveland, affecting 20,000 men, will come at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, unless something unforeseen happens.

At that hour, several hundred contractors, members of the Building Trades Employers' Association, will lock out every member of the Building Trades Council working on their jobs.

Such action, according to the employers will mean that 15,000 men will be added to the 2,000 union laborers already locked out by the employers for alleged violation of agreements, and the 2,000 Building Trades workers who quit work on jobs where the laborers were locked out several weeks ago.

The Employers' Association has sent notices to all its members to pay off and lock out all Building Trades Council members at 4:30 this afternoon, following the failure to reach a settlement of the differences after two days' conference between the employers and union men.

must be revered and respected."

With these words Judge McIntyre thanked the jury which early today found a verdict of guilty against Bouck White, pastor of the Church of Social Revolution, and his two followers, charged with having burned the American flag with the colors of other nations in a "melting pot" ceremony in the back yard of the church last June.

Six men and two women were jointly indicted for participation in the ceremony, but were acquitted.

White and his followers will be sentenced this afternoon. The maximum penalty is thirty days imprisonment, or $100 fine, or both.

His morning announcement stated that the crest of the flood would be reached at a stage of between 57 and 58 feet sometime Saturday morning, unless heavy rains fell in the meantime. The river showed a stage of 54 feet at 9 a. m. today.

B. & O. INSTALLING TELEPHONE SYSTEM

The B. & O. is installing a system of telephones which will soon supplant the telegraph wires for train dispatching and transacting business generally.

The telephone system has been installed through this city, but three or four weeks will elapse before the final touches are given the system and it will be placed in general use.

For two or three months train dispatching over the C. H. & D. has been under way by telephone, and has proved highly satisfactory.

A small switchboard on the operator's desk at the union station will place him in close touch with all the trains and all business which was formerly transacted by telegraph.

By using the telephone it is expected the work will be much more satisfactory and done in less than one-third of the time usually devoted to this end of the business.

Railroad Managers Consider Proposals Made—Adjustment May Not Be Made Until Tomorrow.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, March 15.—Settlement of the question whether a nation-wide strike of railroad employees will be called on Saturday will not be reached until late today at the earliest.

The four chiefs of the railroad brotherhoods, during an hour's joint conference at noon today, presented to the National Conference Committee of the railroad managers their ultimatum calling, it was understood, for the immediate granting of the eight-hour day and pro rata pay for overtime, with a strike as an alternative.

The managers, after listening to the arguments of the brotherhood executive in favor of their proposition, requested time to consider the situation in separate session, and the joint meeting was accordingly adjourned until 4 o'clock this afternoon when the managers promised to give their answer.

The brotherhood chiefs then left the conference and returned to their hotel.

No counter proposition, it was learned, was made to that of the brotherhoods. The managers simply listened to the employees' spokesmen, with little comment, it was said.

An impression was gained, however, that both sides were in a conciliatory mood and were willing to thresh the controversy out if there seemed a possible chance of reaching an agreement.

It was believed by some that the managers, during their interim conference, would formulate a counter proposition, in which case there was a possibility that the joint conference would go over until tomorrow before a conference agreement is reached.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Chicago, March 15.—It was said here this afternoon by one in a position to know that the railroad brotherhoods' compromise proposition calls for an eight hour day with pay only for nine hours, instead of ten as originally demanded.

It would establish a proportionate rate where pay is based on mileage made.

FUNERAL RITES ARE HELD AMID BOWER OF FLOWERS

Great Throng of Sorrowing
Friends Assemble at Stutson
Home to Pay Final Tribute—
Ceremonies Simple and Touching—Body Placed in Mortuary in Washington Cemetery.

Through the portals of the home where his deepest life had centered and where he had so often given glad greeting to his friends, through aisles of people who honored and loved him and who were stunned by the mystery of this death, all that was mortal of Frank L. Stutson was borne to his last resting place Wednesday afternoon.

The throng which had assembled—relatives, business and professional men, the Masons and Elks of his fraternal association, and friends, many of whom were unable to gain entrance regardless of the spaciousness of the home—shared in a common sorrow.

It was a gathering charged with the sense of personal loss as saddened faces and quickly stifled sobs proved and probably in all the assemblage, outside of the immediate family, the pall of grief rested most heavily upon the forty odd employees of the Stutson's store, passing in review before the flower heaped casket in a body. Upon the bier rested a superb floral blanket the store's last tribute to their beloved employer.

Rev. Wm. Boynton Gage, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, conducted a very beautiful service of a simplicity entirely in accord with the personality the man whom they so highly honored. There was in the minister's remarks the tribute of real affection, voicing the sentiment of the entire community.

He said in part:
With reluctance speaks the tongue today because the heart that prompts it is heavy with its sorrow. The realm of our community life is as some forest swept by storm, and whose wrath neglects saplings and underbrush, to bring low the giant trees, which lend to it majesty and charm. Our pilgrimages to the green of God's acre are all too frequent, as one by one there passes from us the leading citizens of the town.

In the untimely death of Frank Stutson the business world has lost a man who ever stood in it for that which was highest and best, while church and home is swept by grief unspeakable. On receipt of the sad news the eyes of strong men, his friends, filled with tears, and none appeared as enemies to speak of him in disrespect. The circles of fraternalism expressed themselves in most brotherly administrations to his loved ones. Hundreds hastened to do whatsoever of kindness lay within their power. The lovely flowers, bestowed in such profusion, breathe the perfume of the regard in which he was held, and the tears that now start unbidden in our eyes, are the words of our tribute.

Behold him as one whose life was marked by highest sense of justice and honor. He espoused every good cause. He stood always for the right. In mature life, and with calm deliberation he united with the Presbyterian church, and was ever most faithful in performance of religious duties. Yet in it all he never verged toward fanaticism. He never emphasized unduly aught for which he stood. He never made himself disagreeable in behalf of any cause that he espoused. He was a kindly, courteous, Christian gentleman to the very end of his days.

How modest also and unassuming! He never sought or held office anywhere. He needed no movements of reform, or led in any popular uprising. Yet his services to the community life were conspicuous and splendid. He stood where most must stand—in the ranks, unmovable and unyielding, and by his very presence there, lending unmeasured strength.

Unparalleled also his courage. Small of body, his the heart of a lion. Against odds that would have overwhelmed many a weaker one, and in the face of obstacles that would to most men would have been insuperable, he thrice re-established a business, destroyed by wind or fire. And when but recently with the burden of three score years upon him, he took up again, undaunted, life's burdens, with the ardor of youth, our admiration knew no bounds.

But it was for the sake of the family to whom he was so devoted. As husband and father he was ideal. For wife and children no sacrifice was too great, no comfort was to be denied. He was indulgent and kind, sacrificing and sweet spirited, never shadowing by his own mood his loved ones. They will miss him. So will we. "O for the touch of a vanished hand, and the sound of a voice that is still." But our hope and comfort is in the world of Him who said: "I am the resurrection and the life."

Mrs. Werter Shoop sang with exquisite tenderness, "The Lord is My Shepherd" and "Good Night," Miss Lillian Davis accompanist.

The beautiful music spoke with an eloquence beyond human words.

A number of friends and the entire store and lodge associates accompanied the family to the Washington Cemetery, where the body was placed in the mortuary, awaiting the committal service later.

The pall-bearers were Mr. Robert C. Howat, Hon. C. A. Reid, Mr. E. L. Bush, Mr. Adam Beck, Mr. Jess W. Smith, Mr. Werter Shoop.

The flowers were magnificent, not only in great profusion, but in wonderful arrangement.

They were borne from the house by the Stutson clerks who performed a last act of loving service in placing them around the casket in the vault.

In addition to the large number received from personal friends there were many designs from orders, business firms and organizations. Among these were the floral blanket from the Stutson store; a superb casket garden of palm leaves and pink roses from the Masonic Temple Co., of which Mr. Stutson had been vice-president; handsome floral emblems from Garfield Commandery 28; the P. and A. Masons the B. P. O. E. 129, and the Elks of Jacksonville; basket roses and lilies from the Dahl-Campbell Grocery Co.; double casket sprays from W. B. Ward, of Goldenburg Bros., New York and Mr. Garrison, of Root and McBride; azalea and roses, the Herald Publishing Co.; basket hyacinths roses and spring flowers, Craig Bros.; double sprays from the Officers and Advisory Board of the Welfare Association; the Willis Lumber Co., the Christian Science Society and the Monday Club.

Hundreds of telegrams were received from manufacturers and wholesale houses, of business connections and friends from a distance.

Relatives who were here for the services were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Simpson; Mrs. George Allen of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stinson, daughter, Miss Ruth of Lafayette, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Norton Stutson, Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. George Kelley; Mrs. Robert Smart, Xenia; Mrs. Harry Stutson and son, Mr. Donald Stutson, of Dayton.

COMMITTEE.

EMBARGO PLACED ON PERISHABLES; STRIKE EXPECTED

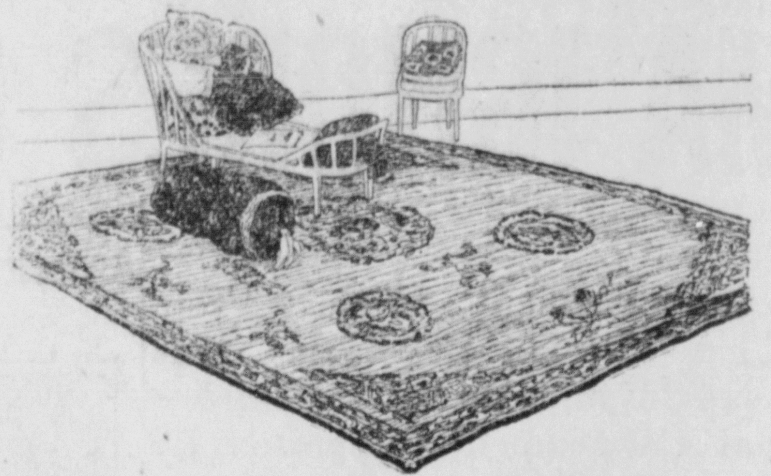

Anticipating a strike of the Brotherhoods of Railroad Engineers and Firemen, railroads touching this city are taking active steps accordingly, and the B. & O. and C. H. & D. are accepting no live stock or perishables that cannot be delivered by eight o'clock Saturday morning.

The D. T. & I. is accepting no perishable freight to be shipped over other lines declaring an embargo, but is still accepting freight of all kinds for delivery on its own lines.

The Pennsylvania, up until Thursday afternoon, had not received orders to refuse perishables. This is probably due to the fact that the Pennsylvania system employees are not subject to walk out until Monday, should the strike come.

Railroad men generally are confident that the strike will be called, and that only something of the most extraordinary nature can prevent such a catastrophe.

Mr. Stutson's Death

This community has suffered a tremendous loss in the death of Mr. Frank L. Stutson.

Coming at the very zenith of a remarkably successful business career, and while he was yet in the prime of life, his death not only removes from the active business life of the city and county a progressive man whose life and activities were of inestimable value, both in direct and indirect effect, but it brings to a great many a deep feeling of personal loss.

Mr. Stutson was especially and deservedly popular with that great buying public with whom the merchant daily comes into personal contact. His greetings and exchanges of courtesies were always genuine and wholehearted.

He was always, during the many years this city has known him as the merchant, about the store to greet and welcome the patrons. Closer personal friends loved him for his genuineness of character, his loyalty and his aggressive energy.

His success in business here, in spite of the most discouraging disasters is an index to Mr. Stutson's remarkable capability, and his almost superhuman energy and determination.

It is probable that the heavy strain which repeated disasters placed upon Mr. Stutson, shortened his life, but his family, his friends and all his wide circle of acquaintances have, in that sorrow, the consolation that his achievements added to the brilliancy of his career, the knowledge that rare indeed are the men who can and do triumph, with such consummate mastery, over an apparently adverse fate.

Mr. Stutson didn't know what it was to be discouraged and to give up. His inclination was to do things and he followed that inclination to pronounced success.

The Stutson store has long been one of Washington's proud possessions. The man who made it what it is, the man who recreated it again and again has been claimed by death.

His achievements and the lesson of his masterful life are a part of the history of this community.

Why death should claim Mr. Stutson at this time none of us know. Confident that He does all things well a sorrowing community, conscious of its loss, is content to extend its sympathy to the family, be thankful for having had him for so long a part of the vital human force of the community, and sorrowfully accept, as it must, the inevitable.

The Opening Gun

Swat the fly!

Do it now; don't wait till typhoid fever or some other deadly disease brings home to you the danger of that little insignificant looking busy body, the fly.

This six legged monster with the little innocent name, has germs in every leg and is killing more children than all the autos; killing them by the thousands and all because of somebody's criminal carelessness; somebody's lack of cleanliness.

It is most important that people are prodded up to the danger as well as the annoyance of the fly. That is what the Welfare Association and the Public Health Nurse are trying to do in the present "Fly Campaign," which is one of the big guns in the now opening "Clean-up" season.

Flies are not only perpetual torments; they are indications of the sanitary conditions of the town, the community and the home in which they are found.

It is a safe prophecy that twenty years from now, if not sooner, the fly will have lost its social status entirely and be considered as disgraceful as it is dangerous.

So it behooves everybody to "get busy" and join the anti-fly brigade.

If you kill the first fly of Spring and keep up the good work energetically during the first warm days you will make a fine start. Have your screen put in early; see that the lid is on the garbage can and the back yard so clean that there isn't even a good square meal for a fly—then you won't need to worry much!—the flies will soon die a natural death from starvation.

Poetry For Today

THY WILL BE DONE

God of the Nations,
Thou Sovereign o'er all,
Govern our judgments,
Our passions enthral!
Grant us thy vision,
That e'er our decision
May be for thy righteousness.
When Thou dost call!

Weld us together
Thy will to declare.
Bold in our action
Ennobled by prayer,
May we with others
In freedom our brothers
Defend our great heritage
From every snare!

Grant us the peace
Which our forefathers won,
Born in the heart,
Of a duty well done.
May we obtain it
And ever sustain it,
Bequeath it to children of Ages to come.

Keep auto tags clear of mud or run the risk of arrest for failure to display license tag.

During the muddy weather many tags have been covered with mud, so that the figures could not be seen, and the ultimatum is made necessary by failure to clean the tags.

HILLSBORO COMING FRIDAY NIGHT

Friday night will witness the last interscholastic game of the season. Hillsboro, the only team which defeated Washington in, the regular games will play on the local gymnasium Friday night. Also there will be a girls game and it is probable that the second team will play Bloomington H. S.

The team has so far played eleven games and won nine and it is expected that they will defeat Hillsboro as the team was in comparatively poor shape when they played on Jan. 5.

Probable lineup: Gregg rf; Slagle, lf; Willis c; Lewis rg; Burnett lg.

THE HOUSE OF KUPFFERHEIMER

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

The Ohio Wesleyan-Reunion and Banquet, annually the event of the year to Fayette County students and ex-students of the University, will be held at Grace M. E. Church on Tuesday evening, March 27, 1917 at 7 o'clock.

Special interest will attach to this banquet in the opportunity of meeting the new President, Dr. John Washington Hoffman, who will make an address.

Mr. Thornburg, popular representative of the student body, will show 2,000 feet of film showing familiar views and faces about the campus.

The committee for this year's banquet includes Supt. Wm. McClain, E. J. Light, Rev. A. W. Cherrington, G. H. Woodmansee, Henry Brownell, Jos. I. Taggart, D. S. Craig, Frank M. Kennedy.

Miss Del Lanum gave charming entertainment to the Eucre Club, Thursday afternoon.

The M. H. G. Club enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. P. M. Cook Wednesday night in their regular business meeting and social session.

The hostess served a dainty lunch. The club is planning to give a "Penny Supper" the 28th of this month.

The Women's Home Missionary Society of Grace M. E. church spent a busy and profitable day in the basement of the church Wednesday knotting comforts and sewing carpet rags.

Thirty women brought their dinner and enjoyed it together. The afternoon attendance was augmented to forty.

Mrs. Corinne Larrimer led the devotionals opening an interesting afternoon session.

A motion thanking women not members of the society who assisted in the recent "group meeting" was made by Mrs. Carpenter, seconded by Mrs. Dial, and recorded on the books.

In lieu of the usual papers, each woman gave her views of the talk made by the Field Secretary, Miss Barge, at the group meeting. They were all highly appreciative.

Mrs. Thomas, of Cleveland, was the only out of town guest.

Miss Edith Kinney delightfully entertained sixteen couples of young people Wednesday night, in honor of Miss Amy Kier who leaves Sunday to join her family in their new home in Marysville.

A variety of games created diversion, and the hostess was assisted in serving tempting refreshments by Mrs. Frank Kinney.

The guests were Misses Amy Kier, Charlotte Thompson, Florence Miley, Bernice Zence, Georgia Lugenbell, Nettie Lugenbell, Martha Baum, Ruth Sexton, Messrs. Clayton Swartz, Myers Kinney, Wilbur Morgan, Tom Baum, John Lugenbell, Homer Kinney, Chester Steffey, John Weyer, Lawrence Belles and Mrs. H. R. Kinney.

GATTY SELLARS RETURNS

After repeated requests the world-famed English organist-composer revisits the United States for a limited period, and plays on Wednesday, March 21 at the M. E. church, under auspices of the Epworth League.

At the moment of mobilization of the armies Mr. Sellars was playing in Germany, where the Weite-Mignon Company were recording his performances on their perforated rolls for after reproduction on their Philharmonic Organs. He returned immediately to England and was requested to complete the contract at New York City, meanwhile being the first organist in England to be recorded by the Columbia Graphophone Company.

This is therefore a unique opportunity to hear this famous artist in the same original organ compositions, performed for such "recording" where it is interesting to note Paderewski had previously been engaged to render some of his Pianoforte works.

On his last American tour a "World's record" was established in 500 recitals being given in direct succession, 75,000 miles covered, strange organs visited, frequently without rehearsal (owing to train delays), and programs entirely from memory.

Appearing on the greatest organs in the country the recitals attracted the largest audiences for an organ recital in the history of most of the cities visited. On the present Trans-Continental Tour there will be an entire change of program, including some of his latest compositions (now published by no less than sixteen leading English, American and German firms), and it is anticipated that again many of the auditoriums will be all too small to accommodate the immense numbers that these performances have drawn in the past. advt.

SERIOUSLY BURNED IN GAS EXPLOSION

Sheriff Henry Jones received word Thursday morning that his brother, William, of Richmond, Indiana, was seriously burned in a gas explosion at the gas plant in that city, Sunday night.

So serious are the burns that the flesh of the arms and face was badly charred, and his recovery is doubtful.

Sheriff Jones expects to leave for his brother's bedside as soon as possible.

IN CONNECTION WITH CLEAN-UP DAY

And also in connection with the back-yard garden should be a can of Killo.

In cleaning up out of doors, Killo should be sprinkled around the garbage can, around musty damp places and around stables and sewers. It will kill germs and bugs and the eggs of flies.

In the house it should be used in the water to wash the woodwork, placed under the rugs and in closets, it will exterminate moths, roaches, bedbugs and ants and make things lean and sweet.

Later on in your vegetables and flower gardens it will kill the bugs on your potato, tomato and cucumber vines, also on your rose bushes and their plants.

Price 15c and 25c per can. Do not fail to use Killo for the protection and happiness of yourself and family. Ask your grocer for it. Manufactured by

BUYS SIXTY ACRE FARM; DISAPPEARS

Who knows of the whereabouts of Sylvester C. Hahn presumably of Lowell, Mass., who is alleged to have arranged for the purchase of a 60 acre farm three miles from this city about three months ago, and has never been heard of?

Chief of Police D. L. Moore is in receipt of a communication from Miss A. M. Bustin, of 270 High Street, Lowell, Mass., making inquiry about Hahn, who, according to Miss Bustin, had left matters in the hands of an attorney in this city, to run the abstract.

Hahn was supposed to have come here to complete the transaction, but has not been heard of since that time. Anyone knowing anything of the transaction in which Hahn was interested will be assisted in the solution of the mystery if they will communicate with Chief Moore at once.

It is possible that the man killed at Greenfield two or three weeks ago, and whose identity has not been established may be Hahn.

Mr. and Mrs. Norton Stutson came up from Cincinnati to attend the funeral of Mr. Stutson's uncle, Mr. Frank L. Stutson.

Mrs. John Westwater of South Charleston spent the past two days the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown.

IN THE WAKE OF SUNDAY'S CYCLONE IN UPPER FAYETTE

As will be noticed by the upper picture, Wesley Chapel was literally leveled to the ground. Had the twist er struck a short time later the church would have held an audience at evening worship, and the toll exacted would have been frightful. Maple Grove school house, a brick structure immediately across the road from the church, was not damaged.

The second picture indicates the narrow escape of Ford Ervin and family, who, witnessing the approach of the storm, fled to the cellar and a moment later the house was lifted from above their heads and dashed to pieces. All other buildings on the premises met a similar fate. It was here that the mantle shelf dropped into the basement and the clock upon it was not stopped.

The lower picture, used by courtesy of The Columbus Monitor, shows two dwellings which were occupied when the storm struck. All occupants were painfully hurt. Immediately to the right and left of the two houses, residences, were blotted out of existence.

Many persons were warned of the approach of the storm by the oppressive atmosphere and the uneasy action of live stock, which became very restless and gave vent to strange cries. More than $2,000 worth of live stock perished in the storm.

REORGANIZATION OF STATE HEALTH BOARD BIG TASK

By Associated Press Dispatch. Columbus, O., March 15. — Reorganization of the state's health department is one of the biggest jobs ahead of Governor James M. Cox. The present State Board of Health of 8 members is to be abolished and a Health Council of four members will be appointed to succeed it. This council will appoint a Health Commissioner who will perform all the administrative duties for the board. Only two of the Health Council need be physicians. Starr Cadwallader, former member of the State Board of Administration is being mentioned for a place on the new commission. It is said that the governor and the council may go outside the state to pick a Health Commissioner.

The Legislature having enacted a law to park Loraine reservoir in Shelby and Auglaize counties, plans are now on foot for the improvement of this lake, making it a watering place equal to Indian Lake and Buckeye Lake. A delegation of farmers and others interested from Auglaize, Shelby and Mercer counties waited upon the House Finance committee yesterday urging the state to appropriate enough money to dredge Loraine creek, the outlet for the lake, in order to prevent overflowing of the stream, and damage to adjoining land. It is estimated it will take $70,000 to make the improvement and the state is asked to pay half the amount.

By telegrams, letters and personal calls Governor Cox is hearing from many bills that passed the Legislature as well as many that did not pass. Graduate nurses and representatives of the larger hospitals are urging the governor to repeal the Hoy-Wright bill changing the qualifications of nurses for registration while the smaller hospitals are appealing to the governor to sign the act. Under the present law one year's high school training is required of graduate nurses. The Hoy-Wright bill permits grammar grade pupils to qualify for an "R. N."

Duties of members of the township board of education and township trustees are incompatible and the two offices cannot be held by the same person. Attorney General McGhee has ruled in an opinion to Prosecuting Attorney Phil H. Wetland of Mt. Gilead.

John Henry Newman, former state librarian, is said to have been offered his old position back if he wants it. The place is now filled by C. B. Galbreath, librarian under many Republican administrations.

Make Your Dollars Count

Come See the Chalmers

Chalmers 7-Passenger, $1350

What is it that sets Chalmers cars apart from all others? Why is the Chalmers a better value than many other cars —some of much higher price?

Here are a few reasons. Only a few. Read them. Then come to us and let us prove to you that meaning of the word Quality—in a motor car.

Materials

The Chalmers, inch for inch, pound for pound, stands high above the other cars near it, in size or price.

Chalmers selects only the finest raw materials. For the frame—carbon steel. For the axle shafts and propeller shaft—chrome nickel. For the front axle—drop forged carbon steel. For the motor casting—close-grained gray iron. For the rear gears—nickel steel, heat treated to secure hardness and toughness. For the transmission housing—aluminum alloy.

So it goes throughout the car from end to end. Examine the Chalmers carefully. The deeper you go the deeper you are impressed with the quality of Chalmers materials.

Manufacture

Chalmers builds "from the ground up" in Chalmers own shops. Motors are Chalmers built, from rough castings to the final test. Built with skill, perfect facilities and untold care.

Motor

The motor is a light weight, high power six. Walls are tested for uniform thickness, to prevent the possibility of distortion and loss of compression.

A specially designed intake manifold improves carburetion. Handles fuel economically. Insures easy starting in cold weather.

The crankshaft is designed to transmit maximum power of the motor without distortion or vibration. A one-piece crankshaft of drop forged carbon steel, heat treated. Noted for sturdiness. Strength. Rigidity. Balanced while rotating at high speed on a special machine. The balancing weights are a unit with the shaft.

All of the above means Quality. The kind of quality you need in the car you buy, and the kind of quality you GET in the Chalmers

UNUSUAL COURT ACTION LOST BY INSURANCE FIRM

A. J. Darbyshire, of Near Sabina, Awarded Insurance Claimed After He Had Placed Order With Agent, But Had Not Received Policy.

The jury in the case of A. J. Darbyshire against the Home Insurance Co., of New York, Wednesday afternoon brought in a verdict for $1,479 with interest from March 26, 1916 for the plaintiff.

The suit was held in the Clinton county common pleas court, with Judge Frank G. Carpenter of this city on the bench, and the case was one of unusual interest because of its exceptional nature.

Darbyshire had placed with D. L. Gerard, of Bowersville, agent for the Home Insurance Company, an order for insurance on his barn, with the understanding that the insurance would begin at once. The next day, before the insurance policy had been made out, the barn was destroyed by fire, and the company refused payment.

"Darbyshire claims that he gave Gerard the order for the insurance just as he had been doing for a period of nineteen years and that the agent accepted the insurance, promising to deliver the policy later, as he always has done before in their dealings."

The company's attorney set up the claim that in the first place the agent was not authorized to accept the insurance, and in the second place that in the event it had been accepted, it would be with certain terms and conditions that would have prevented the payment of the loss.

STRANGE MIRAGE DESCRIBED BY BRITISH AIRMAN

(Associated Press Cable)

London, March 14.—An account of a mirage in the clouds is given in a letter from a British Flying Corps officer on the western front. He says:

"I had often wondered what it would feel like to see a machine coming straight for me and to know that a collision was inevitable. I had the experience this afternoon, only the collision did not take place."

"I was on patrol with five other machines over the lines, and had just gone into a cloud bank. Just before going in I saw the 'plane on my right turning to cross in front of me. Suddenly I saw a machine of the same type as mine appear out of the cloud about fifty feet away, making straight for me."

"Instinctively I jaded my nose hard down and went as near a nose drive as possible. The other aeroplane did the same. I turned. The other turned into me."

"I was in a cold perspiration all over by this time, so I thought 'Here goes; if I am going to crash, it might as well be complete.' So straight for it I went. We got closer and closer, and biff! my machine and—its mirage in the clouds met."

"It seemed like a hideous nightmare and I can still see that machine doing its utmost to crash into me. I think I can say I have had the full horrors of a collision in the air without its actually taking place. I finally got out of the clouds, and had not the faintest idea where I was, until a shell reminded me that I was a little too low over the German lines."

They're a couple of cold spreaders.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headache, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
